

What A Wonderful World

I see skies of blue and clouds of white
My little girl, so beautiful and bright
And I think to myself, what a wonderful world

I see aprons and hats and headbands too
Those treasured days of me and you
And I think to myself, what a wonderful world

All these feelings in my heart, sometimes are hard to say
But maybe in a song they'll come out anyway

When I give you a hug and say "How are you doin'"
I'm really saying, "I love you"

There's just one girl that I'd trust you to
And I thank the Lord, that she married you
And I think to myself, what a wonderful world
And I think to myself, what a wonderful world
